NIGERIAN INSTRUCTOR TO AID TACOMA SCHOOL DISTRICT IN BLACK STUDIES

David Akintola, of Ilorin, Nigeria, is on loan from a privately owned high school in that country to the Tacoma School District for the current school year. Akintola, a former student at Ohio University, will function as a consultant with the District in a program designed to help improve its black studies.

He is sponsored under the federal Fulbright-Hayes Cultural Exchange Act, and regards his mission in terms of "human geography..what life is like in another country. What do they eat? What do they plant?" Akintola feels black studies should not be set up as separate courses, but rather he hopes to see the contributions of black Americans taught alongside of those of other races.

David Akintola is a native Nigerian, and principal of a high school in Ilorin.

Black Student Union Gets Grant

Discuss Plans for Grant

Lewis Dibble, Left, With Robert Ford

The Black Student Union at the University of Puget Sound recently received a $5,000 grant to employ student members as tutors for elementary and junior high children in Tacoma's Hilltop area.

One thousand dollars of the grant was donated by the Tacoma Urban League through its director, Tom Dixon. Director of Financial Aid for UPS, Lewis Dibble, secured the remaining $4,000 under a special federal grant to the university's Work-Study Program for Off-Campus Projects.

Professor Robert Ford, director of the Black Studies Program at UPS and initiator of the tutoring project, called it "a real chance for needy Black college students to earn work-study money and an excellent way to involve them in the community in a meaningful way."

The $5,000 will pay ten Black students to tutor approximately ten children for 15 hours per week the remainder of the academic year.Though the children will be tutored in all subject areas, Professor Ford pointed out that a side goal of the program will be to "instill Black pride and a sense of self in the young students, so they may develop an increased incentive to learn.

Meet Your Neighbor

By D. M. McKerson

The successful man is the persistent man. If he has a goal set, - he continues to work toward that goal even when the chips are down and the odds are against him. For the black man, this is especially true. If he reaches any degree of self-actualization, he does so with persistent determination.

At twenty five years of age, Mrs. Landon Dennis Glenn (Regina), is such a person. She was born in New York and raised in Baltimore, Maryland. In 1960, she and her daughter moved to Tacoma to join her husband.

She immediately enrolled at Stadium High School so that she could receive her diploma. On week-ends she worked at a local hospital to earn the money needed for graduation fees. After graduation, Regina worked for Schoenfelds as a cashier for three years. During this time she took night courses at the University of Puget Sound. It did not take long for her to decide that night courses did not give her the total envolvement that she was seeking.

Headed toward her degree, she began to go to school full time at UPS. To help pay for her education she took various summer accounting and clerical jobs.

By being a full time student, Regina was able to work toward her goals. She began to enjoy the challenges placed before her. As a student, she participated in many campus activities. She belonged and was elected President in 1967 to Phi-Chi Theta, a business Women's honorary. That same year the chapter sent her to New Orleans as a delegate to the national convention. She worked as an assistant admission counselor for minority students. For her work in admissions, she received the Kliener scholarship for Brotherhood. She was also a reader and grader for a business and management professor.

Regina was elected by the student body to the office of 2nd Vice President her junior year. As 2nd Vice President, she was in charge of allocating funds of the student body budget. In 1969 and 1970, she was selected for Who's Who in America Colleges and Universities.

MRS. LANDON DENNIS GLENN

Regina became manager of the University Puget Sound bookstore her senior year. She was the first student and the first black to hold such an administrative position. She feels that she became the manager because she was qualified.. and knew how to work with people. The fact that she is black is secondary. Because she has maintained good relationships with the students and faculty, she has been able to achieve effective results and services have been improved.

"as the manager for the bookstore, I am only the spokesman for my team. We are able to work together. From them, I welcome candid criticisms so that we may enjoy the benefits of a smooth organization."

Regina received her bachelor of arts degree in business administration. She is currently enrolled in the UPS masters program, Graduate School of Business. She will receive her masters degree in August 1970.

"I am planning to write my thesis on "Role-Conflict of the Black Man in the White Capitalist Society. I have done a lot of research and given the subject much thought."

"The idea of Role-conflict is a part of my everyday existence. The career woman is the epitome of role conflict. You do have strain and oppression. There is the obligation of my role as a mother and wife versus my drive for self-actualization--the striving from within to be an individual. True motherhood is the surrendering of your individuality for your children. Motivated people have to be selfish so that they may study longer, go to school, be well groomed, etc."

"To acquire money or wealth is a goal because of the economics of live. However, I feel that I have gone beyond satisfying the basic needs of an individual--that is the need for survival and self esteem. My goal now is to be all that I can be. I believe in running the risks of rejection."

Regina plans to own her own business someday. She likes the idea of "Taking something from birth and watching it grow and diversify." When she chalks up the experience, she feels she needs, she plans to teach at the college level.

Her husband, Dennis, is currently employed as an electrician for Boeing. Her two lovely daughters are Jane Marie and Bonnie Jo. They are in the fourth and first grades at St. Leo.

AMVETS ORGANIZED NEW POST

The new AMVETS Post No. 4 is to serve all World War II, Korean and Vietnam Veterans regardless of race, color, religion, sex or National origin. We intend to reach more minority veterans who are disadvantaged because they have not enjoyed certain veterans rights. As they seek advice, legal counseling, veterans benefits etc, we will be staffed to render such service. In the hope that all veterans will take a role in forming this new Post, a charter membership drive will continue through the month of December. For additional information call Mr. Roger O. Laskey at MA 7-0347 or Mr. Harold H. Bond, FU 3-2006 or Colonel A Foote, LO 4-8880 after 5 p. m.

Housing Starts Up

WASHINGTON — The seasonally adjusted annual rate for new one to four family home units started under Federal Housing Administration inspection during October was the highest reported in 10 years, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Develment recently announced The rise inthis series since May, 1970 has been uninterrupted.

The impact of the federal-lyy subsidized Section 236 multi-family rental housing program figures prominently in the very large volume of new project housing units being started. Total units in projects started the FHA inspection numbered 141,000 for the months ending Oct. 31 double the figure for the comparable period in 1969.

ALTRUISTICS SOCIAL CLUB "YFAR END" DANCE

The V. F. W. at 2000 So. Union was the scene of the Altruistics Year-End benefit dance, Friday evening, December 4th.

The hall was beautifully decorated in tune to the festive holiday season.

Rhythmic couples danced to R & B (soul) music furnished by Charles and the Entertainers. Seen on the dance floor was a colossal of fashions.

To note a few of the guest attending: Mmes. Thomas Williams, John Holliday, William Carter, Marian Roach, Thelma Frank, Delores Wilkins, Louise William and Katie Jennings. Also making the scene were Mr. & Mrs. Willie Jackson.

FANCY PANTS! FANCY PANTS! FANCY FANCY PANTS!

Gads! The fancy pants seen in the Crystal Ball Room at the AKA's "Fancy Pants Dance" was SOME'UM else!!!!!. With that Jet Set Crowd, there had to be a few designer originals (would you beleive your SE's was pointed out a Dior. WOW!!!).

SCENE STEALER.....

Always neat and petite is our own vice-principal, (Stanley) Mrs. Delores (Dee) Silas and AKA Soror wearing a black (shimmy) pants outfit. Sure she will again make the ten best dress list '71.

.....and JAZZ

When Charles and the Entertainers took a Pause for a Cause, your SE's (SOCIETY EDs) dropped in at the SABRE ROOM, to hear that much talked about jazz group "THE ARMAND TRIO", with Armand on piano, Gean England on Bass, Dave Coleman on Drums and last but not least was that dynamic vocalist Miss Elaine Vennett doing her thing with "Cain't help loving that man of mine" followed by an instrumental version of "Girl Talk" and that ole' jazz Classic "Intermission Riff". For those of you who have yet to hear this group, should drop in at the Sabre Room within the next three weeks and get a taste of "Cal Jader" and June Christi" sound effect.

AKA Presents Fancy Pants Affair

by Lill & Teri

Encircled for their Sorority song are members of the Zeta Omega, Omega Chapter of Alpha Alpha Sorority, Inc. of Tacoma.

The lovely Crystal Ballroom at the Winthrop Hotel was the site of the long anticipated Fancy Pants affair, Saturday evening, December 5th, hosted by the Zeta Omega, Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority.

Sorority members greeted and assisted their guest at the door. Charles and the Entertainers were on hand to encourage all present to express their rhythmic agility to their music.

There was a beautiful array of fashionable pant styles noted throughout the evening.

The Society Eds. found it very nostalgic and informative when songs of the different Greek letter sororities and fraternities were played and members, in turn, rose in recognition and honor of their organization and song.

The activity throughout the evening indicated that the well attend affair was enjoys by all. So hats off to the A.K.A.'s and their unique idea at a most appropriate time.

Brooke Praises Hickel

WASHINGTON — Sen. Edward W. Brooke, R-Mass., one of the most vocal opponents of the 1969 appointment of Walter J. Hickel as secretary of the Department of the Interior, said last week he "regretted" Hickle's firing by President Nixon.

"He's been an outstanding secretary," said Brooke. "I have the greatest respect for what he's done. I didn't feel he had the qualifications for the job. He's proven me wrong."

The Downtown Boy's Club Parent's Club will again sponsor the Washington State Junior Golden Gloves.

There will be twenty weight divisions starting at sixty pounds through heavy weight.

The participants will be from Spokane, Seattle Canada, Oregon and California. There were 104 entries in our 1969 tournament and we are hoping to have the same this year.

Championship jackets will be awarded in each weight division. There will be a team trophy and a best boxer of the night award.

All bouts will be held at the Downtown Boys' Club, 711 South 25 Street. Elimination bouts will start at 10:00 a. m. and the finals will begin at 7:00 p. m. on Saturday, December 12, 1970.

FBI needs more black agents?

WASHINGTON — A Roman Catholic priest last Friday protested that the FBI is failing to do enough to recruit Blacks for the federal police agency.

The Rev. Donald W. McIlvane said after an hour-long closed meeting with FBI Personnel Assistant Director Harold Bassett that the FBI appeared satisfied with its recruitment program.

McIlvane, noting that fewer than 2 per cent of the FBI agents are from minority groups, suggested to Bassett a special six month recruitment drive.

He said the answer to his recommendation is no."

Bassett refused to talk with reporters after the meeting but an aide in the FBI's Information Department, said: "We have an active recruiting effort among minority groups. We have no comment beyond that."

McIlvane, a priest at St. Richard's Church in Pittsburgh, said he was specifically interested in that Western Pennsylvania area but noted that the problem was nationwide in scope.

Site of Dr. King's assassination to be memorial

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — The Rev. Ted Cuveston, local president of the Washington-based Inner City Communications, announced plans last week to convert the motel where Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. was slain into a home for the city's needy as a memorial to King.

Cuveston said his group had been given permission to solicit $100,000 in Tennessee, but he hoped to raise as much as $1 million in a statewide campaign to purchase and renovate the ground level of the Lorraine Motel.

Cuveston said Walter L. Bailey, owner of the motel, would receive $450,000 for the property and "Asked to join the operating staff at the home."

Newest Cigarette Lighter?

NEW YORK — Billy Robinson, 36, was walking down E. 146th Street in the Bronx one night last week and stopped in front of a building to light a cigarette.

When he struck the match, the building blew up. Fire officials said leaking gas had accumulated in the building and the match triggered the explosion in the vacant structure.

Robinson was hospitalized with severe facial and hand burns.

Policing Food Stamp Abuses

WASHINGTON (UPI) — New regulations to tighten control over state policing of fraud and errors in the government food stamp program were announced last week.

Among other items, the regulations include uniform methods for use by all state agencies in making claims against people who get food stamps through fraud. Also included are uniform guidelines for handling claims when stamps are issued because of mistakes by local welfare officials.
